Dear Mrs.

Upon my return this week from a short vacation I found your very thoughtful letter of June 13.

We in the Agency are indeed delighted that this important matter has been satisfactorily resolved and regret that there was ever any occasion for you to be worried or concerned. I shall be more than happy to pass along your expression of appreciation to those who really deserve the credit for straightening out an obvious, grievous error. I can assure you that they are as delighted as I am that their efforts were successful.

With all good wishes.

Sincerely,

/s/ L. K. White
